1. A response has been filed on November 24, 2004.
2. Claims presented for examination are 11-17.
3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 11, 16 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 11 is indefinite in depending from itself.

Claims 16 & 17 are indefinite since they depend respectively from claims 20 & 21 which are non-elected.

Claims 16 & 17 are therefore withdrawn from consideration.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

6. Claims 11-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Mayer et al. (US 5322866) in view of Tomka (US 5362777) and Schiltz (US 5449708).

Mayer discloses a method of preparing and extruding biodegradable starch blends. Unprocessed raw starch is combined with polyvinyl alcohol or ethylene-vinyl alcohol, talc, glycerol and then, extruded and blown into a film (abstract col. 3, lines 1-39). Also calcium or zinc stearate and water may be added to the blend (col. 3, lines 39-55).

UKR Mayer does not mention modified starch and stearic acid as ~~an~~ ingredients of the blend.

Tomka discloses thermoplastic processable starch, which is prepared by combining starch with an additive such as succinic acid anhydride.

Schiltz discloses biodegradable starch based polymer compositions and method of producing of producing them. The method includes blending starch, and ethylene-acrylic acid copolymer and a stearic acid salt (col. 4, lines 4-20).

It would have therefore been obvious to use in the composition of blends of Mayer, (a) modification starch (of Tomka) to increase biodegradability and (b) salt of stearic acid to optimize gelatinization of starch thereby resulting in improved physical properties.
